WHY NOT BUY THE NEW OVERSEAS PRESS CLUB BOOK "MEN WHO SHAPE YOUR WORLD" published by E. P. Dutton and Company to give as a Christmas gift this year? Editor and Publisher devotes over two columns to "this pungently incisive volume of current biographies by members of the Overseas Press Club who eye-witnessed their subjects...world figures are neither acidly nor eulogistically but candidly etched". The review devoted considerable space to the chapters on Stalin, Truman and Tito.

WOULD SOME CLUB MEMBER be interested in renting a beautiful furnished farm house with all conveniences (oil heat, two baths, and a dream kitchen) complete with a garbage disposal unit for $150 ??? If so, call Ferndale, Bucks County, Pa. 1 R 6. The house is 18 miles from Flemington, N. J. and would be fine for a writer who does not have to go into New York every day. There is also a tenant farmer who can take care of the house when the owner is away; lease can be had for any period up to three years.

STANLEY HIGH of Reader's Digest writes in Plain Talk for December that "We're For Government Economy, But"; CIARE BOOTHE LUCE discusses "The FCC vs. God"; GEORGE FIELDING ELIOT asks "Who'll Drop The Next Atom Bomb" and ISAAC DON LEVINE takes "Two Ghosts Out of Germany", all in the same issue.

AT the luncheon at ROSOFF'S on November 30th, HAL LEHRMAN, recently returned from an extended trip to countries behind the iron curtain, said that the U. S. is playing safe with the people in power now in western European countries. Hal does not feel that it is good to play politics with people on the extreme right rather than those of the center and moderate groups as we have done in Greece, Turkey and Germany.

LEHRMAN said that Turkey, although it has been aided by the U. S. on the military side, has not been helped, from the point of view of the people, on the political side. He said that Turkey cannot stop the USSR if it pushes forward there now, and the Turkish people are wondering if we are playing on the conservative side of their government just for our own safety.

We have not done anything to change the German mind, according to this member. Our U. S. Personnel staff is insecure in Germany and poorly informed, said LEHRMAN, and our premature handing back of the government to German personnel is not a good thing.

HAL also said that the present Russian Policy is our best defense now and that this is our chance to call every one of their bluffs.
